PURE SPRINGBOK COLLECTION

The FSP Collection presents the best of South African design - expertly hand-crafted in Cape Town by skilled artisans dedicated to their craft.

We bring you a deliberately designed collection of unique handbags inspired by Africa and its people manufactured with love in the FSP Studio.

KERRI

A functional casual Tote that will hold all your needs for a busy on-the-go day.

An unusual feature is the hand-braiding on each side of the centre springbok panel showing the mane. The inside of the bag has the added luxury of being lined with tan suede and features a large pocket to keep all your precious things safe.

LASSIE

This style is the classic rounded bowling bag shape with a top handle. Its lines are very elegant and ladylike and has a double zipper detail featuring a metal zip and leather pulleys. Add to this a luxurious tassel and you have one classy handbag.

STEPHIE

An expandable Tote which changes shape once the sides are press-studded to the main body. The style can be carried by the top handles and also features a detachable shoulder strap. Offered with nickel or antique brass hardware. This style has a lovely slouchy softness about it.

BELT BAG

The easygoing rounded belt bag is a high fashion item and can be worn as a belt with your favourite jeans or casually slung around the hips.

We have also made the FSP version even more unique by adding a panel of springbok hair-on hide. There is a zip fastening along the top of the bag for easy access.

LOLA SATCHEL

A two buckle messenger provides a casual chic compliment to your everyday style with plenty of space for all your essentials.

It can be carried as a handbag, hands-free across the body or on the shoulder thanks to the adjustable shoulder strap. A hidden magnetic clip is used to hold the flap in place.

SKYLAR

The versatile satchel style bag which can be carried by the two top handles or by the detachable shoulder strap. The bag takes on a draped shape and there is an interesting button detail on the handles attaching the short straps to the handbag.

A dropped zip makes the closure invisible and the springbok hair-on panel is placed sideways for a slight twist.

BARREL

This functional popular barrel silhouette has tube handles providing a comfortable way to carry either over the shoulder or in your hand. An added feature is the "metal" zip closure which makes it very safe. A lovely everyday handbag.

SC18 | H 26.5 W 32 D 13CM

CASSEY

A casual raw edge, unlined Shopper. Understated springbok detail enhanced with hand-braiding. Easy access to large back and inside pockets. Contrast leather strap makes it comfortable on the shoulder. Very light, so ideal for travelling as it can be packed flat.

HOMEWARE COLLECTION

The Story behind FSP Homeware

CONTEMPORARY AFRICA DESIGN

South Africa is an emerging hot spot for incredible artisans and design talent.

FSP has tapped into the wealth of unique natural materials and creative skills and offers a homeware collection which embraces Africa's distinctive aesthetics, diverse cultures, and rich heritage.

What emerged is a contemporary Homeware Collection handcrafted in the spirit of Africa and which draws on Africa's stories, materials, and artisanal traditions.

The results are striking, timeless and always beautifully crafted.

The company has been in existence since 1998 and focuses on sourcing exquisite South African sourced leathers and indigenous game-skins such as springbok and zebra.

Through innovative design and quality workmanship FSP plays a leading role in South Africa supplying a collection of luxury pillows and soft furnishings.

All skins are obtained through Government approved herd reduction programs or are a natural by-product of the meat industry.

Each piece adds a touch of Africa to any sophisticated living space.

In an age of mass-production and commercialization the homeware stands out as original and authentic.
